22 On April 26, 2005, this matter came on for a status
23 conference. The United States appeared through Assistant United 24 States Attorney Phillip A. Talbert. Defendant Ramon Barragan
25 Robles appeared with his counsel Daniel Davis, Esquire. Mr.
26 Davis requested a continuance to provide the parties additional 27 time to negotiate a written plea agreement. Defendant Robles 28 consented to, and the government stipulated to, an exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act from April 26, 2005 to May 10, 2005. The continuance was granted.

1 Accordingly, the Court entered the following orders:

2 For good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

3 1. A further status conference/possible change of plea is 4 scheduled for May 10, 2005, at 9:30 a.m.

6 2. The time between April 26, 2005, and May 10, 2005, is 7 excluded under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to Local Code T4, 8 Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv). The 9 Court specifically finds that a continuance is necessary to give 10 the defendant reasonable time to negotiate a possible resolution 11 of the charges in this matter. The Court finds that the ends of 12 justice served by setting a new status conference outweigh the 13 best interest of the public and defendant in a speedy trial.
